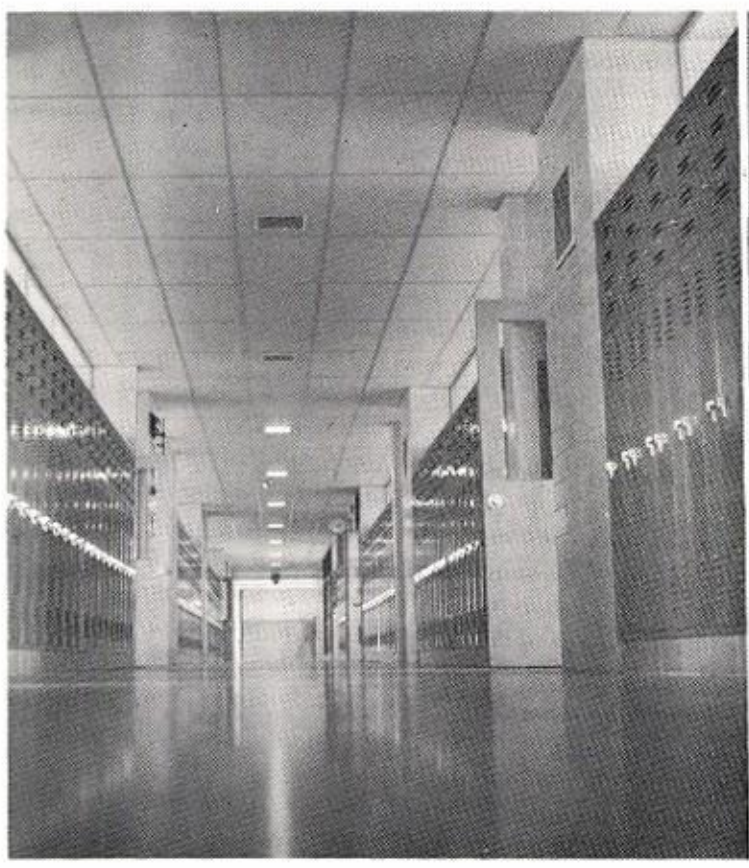
Celebrating a birthday at play practice?

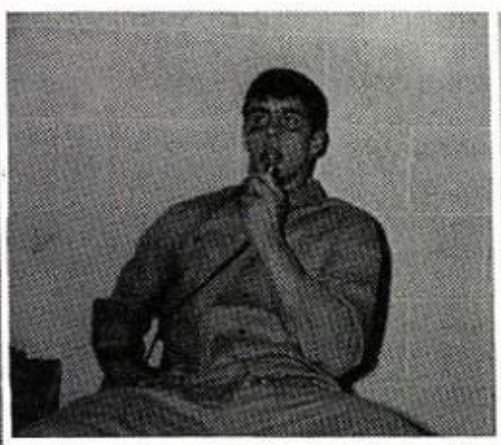
All grown-ups aren't "squares."

A typical scene between classes.

Our editor



1:40 P.M., peace reigns.



"Jeri G."

An intense desire to be a seamstress.

It's so nice to have a man around the house.

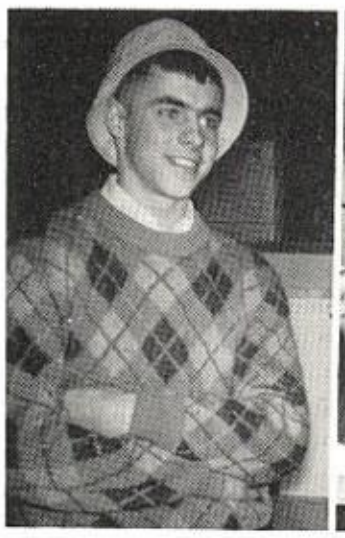
SENIOR SNAPS

Only your hairdresser knows for sure.

"Congratulations Cal'"

Phys. Ed Class?

"What's the password?"

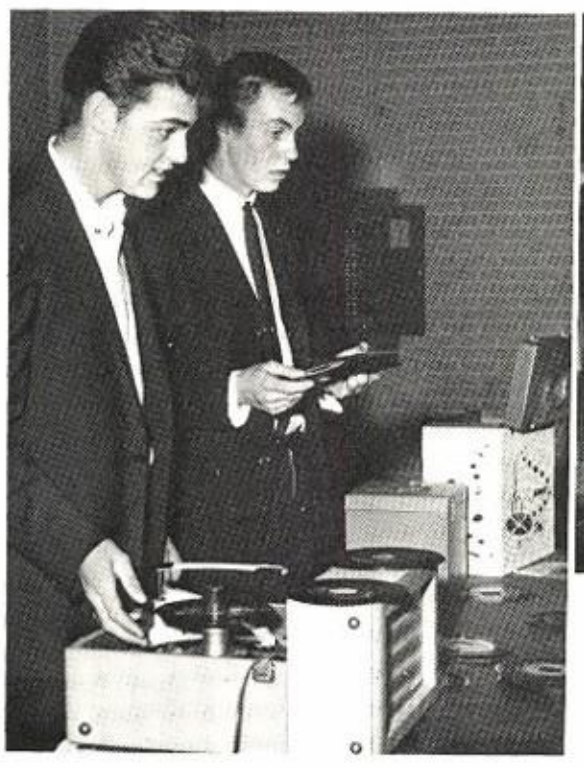


Boy! Have I got a surprise for my judge!!!

Football season over--NOW WE EAT!!!

"If he gives me a 39 instead of a 40 . . . "

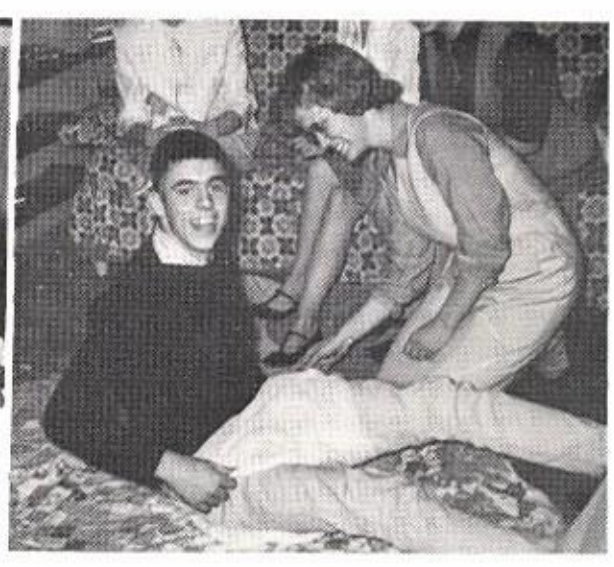
Seamstress at work.



"Are you kidding?"

"What kind of dance is that?"

"Watch out! Lois is pouring!"



"Wet his pants!?!?"

though in secret it rolls,

Shall long keep their memory

The staff and the editors of the 1965 Highlander thank our adviser, Mrs. Waite, the advertisers, faculty and the administration who helped us so much in completing this yearbook.

Thank you for purchasing a yearbook, and we hope that it will be a lifelong book of many happy memories of Highland School Days.

TELE-A-SCOT

The Tele-A-Scot keeps the student body informed and entertained throughout the school year, with news from the office, Student Council, classes, clubs and, of course, the "Dear Ethyl" column for lovelorn students, and the most important section--the gossip.

Upcoming Teachers Get Experience

In previous years, the Future Teachers' have only taught as substitutes in emergencies but this year, they have been able to teach at least once a month while the elementary teachers attend county mathematical meetings. Half teach in the Primary Grades and half in the upper Elementary Grades.

The members held a "Cookout" at the Logan Farm in October. The third formal initiation occurred in November; members and parents received red roses. "Window Cleaner" was the Sales Project.
